

Tennessee Geographic Information Council - TNGIC

Code of Conduct

TNGIC believes our actions, words, and behaviors matter. We strive to provide an environment where each person is treated with fairness, respect, and free from discrimination or harassment of any kind. We expect everyone involved with TNGIC organizational business or events to conduct themselves in a manner that exhibits the highest level of professionalism. TNGIC further expects all such persons to comply fully with all applicable laws and with the highest ethical principles. We seek for every attendee, member, student, visitor, and/or anyone else in any way affiliated with the organization to have a sense of security, fulfillment, and purpose in their involvement and participation in our organization. TNGIC will not tolerate any conduct that runs afoul of these principles and/or that may have the effect of tarnishing TNGIC's image.

TNGIC reserves the right to enforce the Code of Conduct by appropriate response as deemed necessary by the TNGIC Board of Directors in its discretion. All decisions by the TNGIC Board of Directors will be final.
